

Mount Pearl Sport Alliance Recognition Award Nomination Form

This award recognizes participation, performance and contribution to sport at the local grass roots level. Typically award recipients stand out for their great enthusiasm and dedication to their respective sport, teammates and club (community and school). Simply put it's all about young athletes and volunteers celebrating the joy of the sport experience and demonstrating values like fairness, dedication, respect, hard work and enthusiasm for the fun of playing the game and giving back.

Nominee name: _____ Sport/club: _____

Coach: _____ School: _____

Date: _____

Current achievements: _____

Most memorable achievement: _____

Examples of contributing to club or community: _____

Nominator: _____

Phone number/e-mail: _____

Nominator comments: _____

See examples on page 2. Please use back of page as required. We will also follow up for the full story.

Examples of past nominations:

- A young tennis player's enthusiasm for the game and infectious spirit brings "life to the clubhouse" and builds friendships with teammates and opponents alike. She also pursues other sports and helps as a Special Olympics coach.
- A young martial arts student shows great determination in achieving his personal goal, and volunteers as an assistant instructor to help younger students succeed.
- A synchronized swimmer volunteers to coach younger athletes, and is training to become a Provincial Judge.
- A high school student and basketball player contribute his time to coach minor and junior high basketball, while pursuing provincial level play, maintaining good grades at school, and making time for family and friends.
- A pre teen hockey team is very successful on the ice, and makes to to assist with community food sharing network, and learning how food sharing helps families and the community.
- A young house league hockey player contributes extra time as a junior leader, helping younger players, and volunteers for special events. As a summer motocross racer he also used his paper route to pay for his prized motorcycle.
- A young soccer player constantly "gives his all" in house league play, and is a regular volunteer helping out with tournaments by fielding balls and assisting at canteen.
- A novice official referees 3 to 4 games in one week while covering for others, and helps a coach by taking extra time to explain rules to young players.
- A Special Olympics athlete competes at a high level in several sports and actively supports and encourages teammates and competitors alike.

SUBMIT